(XXVII^th YEAR.) THE (N°. 1359)

MARYLAND GAZETTE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1771.

BASTIA June 9.

THE French Troops under Count de Marbœuf, have had a bloody Action with the Malecontents on the other Side of the Mountains, and it is ſaid the former were obliged to retire with conſiderable Loſs in killed and wounded. Some of their Baggage is alſo fallen into the Hands of the Banditti.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 17. The Plague is juſt broke out again in this Capital, and its Suburbs.

COPENHAGEN, June 11. In order to prevent a Scarcity of Grain in this Capital, his Majeſty has given Orders that a Magazine ſhall be erected here, which ſhall always contain 10,000 Tons; this is to be replaced from Year to Year; and if our own Country ſhould not furniſh a Sufficiency to keep it up, a Quantity ſufficient for that Purpoſe is to be bought in foreign Countries.

TRIESTE, June 12. Letters from the Levant ſay, that the Ruſſian Squadron is in a bad Condition, as well for want of Money, as good Proviſion.

MITTAU, June 17. We begin to feel here the like Troubles with Poland and Lithuania. The Diſſidents, in the Neighbourhood of our Frontiers, take Refuge in this Duchy, ſeeking an Aſylum againſt the Violences of the Confederates; but the latter, without Regard to the Law of Nations, purſue them hither, maſſacre all thoſe who have the Misfortune to fall into their Hands; lay Waſte the ſown Lands, and pull down the Houſes which they find in their Paſſage. The Proteſtants have built a Church at Birſen, the Confederates are come to deſtroy it, and Ravage at the ſame Time the Territories of the Chamberlain Turnau, though ſituated in this Dutchy.

VENICE, June 19. According to the laſt Letters from the Levant, the Ruſſians propoſe to make another Attempt upon the Morea. Private Letters ſay, that they have advanced into Bulgaria.

PRAGUE, June 20. There was a Riot in this City on Account of the Dearneſs of Proviſion. The Governor told the Mob, if they would not diſperſe, he would order the Garriſon to fire upon them. Not in the leaſt intimidated, they replied, that they would look upon the Execution of his Menaces as a Favour, ſince a ſudden Death by the Muſket was preferable to a ſlow one by Famine. The Governor did not chuſe to take their Advice, but ſent an Expreſs to the Empreſs, who was ſo much moved with the Diſtreſs of her Subjects as to ſhed Tears. She countermanded the Waggons loaded with Corn for Ratiſbon, and gave that City an Indemnification of 1500 Ducats.

PISA, June 23. A Report prevails here, that the Emperor of Morocco hath declared War againſt the French; and that his Corſairs have already inſulted the Flag of that Nation.

PARIS, July 5. We are aſſured that the Jeſuits and their Partizans, have offered Two Hundred Millions for Permiſſion to return to their Convents: It is added, that the Jews have alſo offered an Hundred Millions for a Synagogue, and the Right of Citizens, at Paris; and that they alſo propoſe to purchaſe the fine Coliſeum, which the Diſtreſs of the Times hath rendered a Deſert: Many People, who are fearful of ſome further Operations in the Finances, prefer theſe Two Methods of obtaining Money to that of having Recourſe to new Burthens on the People.

LONDON, July 8.

It is confidently ſaid that a Treaty is on Foot, with the Powers concerned, to annex a valuable trading Iſland and Port, in the Levant, to the Crown of Great-Britain.

We hear that Charles Fox, Eſq; is now become a Cabinet Counſellor to a great Perſonage.

The Queſtion of the Middleſex Election will certainly be brought on again at the Meeting of Parliament, in a Manner, and from a Quarter, at preſent little ſuſpected.

Letters of good Authority from France ſay, that a Diſpute of much greater Importance than was generally known has for ſome Time paſt ſubſiſted between the Courts of Verſailles and Madrid; that it was firſt broached by a Demand which the former made on the latter of Money to a conſiderable Amount, to relieve her preſent Neceſſities, but which Spain abſolutely refuſed. This Quarrel is ſtill to ſettle; and unleſs the new Premier of France exerts his Abilities to ſuppreſs it, the Conſequences will ſoon produce the Ruin of the Family Compact.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, July 5.

"Sailed Yeſterday his Majeſty's Ship Tartar for New-York. Several Men of War are to come into Harbour, which, we hear, are to be fitted for foreign Service. This Morning the 33d Regiment of Foot began to clear the Ground for the Fortifications round the Dock-Yard."

An Officer of Rank in the Horſe, has lately been ſuperſeded for Mal-practices.

The Marine Companies, which at preſent conſiſt of no more than Fifty Men each, are to be encreaſed to the Complement of One Hundred; and the Guard which they conſtituted at Portſmouth Dock, and which has been for ſome Time diſcontinued, is to re-eſtabliſhed, when the Companies are compleated.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, July 8.

"The following Ships are getting ready to cruize the Channel, viz. Trident 64 Guns; Worceſter 64; Lenox 64; Royal-Oak 64; Glory 36; Thames 36. Theſe Six Men of War are, we hear, to join Three more of the Line at Plymouth, and proceed to Sea as ſoon as poſſible.

"At Spithead Sixteen Ships of War."

July 10. The Earl of Rochford is ſaid to have ſent a very ſpirited Memorial to the French Court, inſiſting on the immediate Payment of the Money due on Account of the Canada Paper; and that a firm Reſolution is at length taken, that this Matter ſhall no longer remain the Diſgrace of our publick Conduct, and a Stain on the national Honour.

Dr. Horne's being appointed Chaplain to his Majeſty ſeems to prove, that the Name of Horne is not diſguſtful to a courtly Ear.

Extract of a Letter from Leghorn, dated June 9.

"We have juſt received Advice from Malta, that an Engliſh Merchant Ship, named the Anglican, having taken on board at Smyrna about 300 Turks, moſtly Traders, whom he was to carry to Alexandria, and who had with them a conſiderable Sum of Money, was met by a Ruſſian Corſair, who ordered him to bring to. The Engliſh Captain, having his Colours flying, took no Notice of the Order, but ſailed on his deſtined Rout; however, the Ruſſian having joined a Frigate of War of his Nation, they both attacked, ſome Hours after, the Engliſh, who after an Engagement of Three Hours, in which he received great Damage in his Maſts and Rigging, was obliged to ſurrender. This Advice comes farther confirmed in a Letter from a Merchant at Malta to his Correſpondent here, with Orders to buy up great Part of the Cargo on his Account, if it ſhould be brought into this Place."

ST. JAMES's. This Day the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, the Sheriffs, and the Common Council, with a Committee of the Livery, of the City of London, waited upon his Majeſty, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſty's Houſhold, with the following Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, which was read by Sir James Hodges, Town Clerk.

"To the KING's moſt excellent MAJESTY,

"The humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery, of the City of London, in Common-Hall aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

"WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Livery of the City of London, in the Anguiſh of our Hearts, beg leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and deeply to lament that we ſtill ſuffer, together with many others, all thoſe great and unparallelled Grievances, which we have before ſubmitted to your Majeſty, with the Hope of a full and ſpeedy Redreſs from our Sovereign, as the Father of his People.

"The ſame arbitrary Houſe of Commons which violated the ſacred Right of Election, and ſeated among themſelves, as a Repreſentative of the People, a Man who was never choſen into Parliament, have, the laſt Seſſion, proceeded to the moſt extravagant Outrages againſt the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and the Liberty of the Subject, of which your Majeſty is by Law the Great Guardian. They have ventured to impriſon our Chief Magiſtrate, and one of our Aldermen, for diſobeying their illegal Orders, and not violating the holy Sanction of their Oaths to this great City, as well as their Duty to their Country. They have, by the moſt artful Suggeſtions, prevailed upon your Majeſty, to ſuffer your Royal Name to give a pretended Authority to a Proclamation, iſſued at their expreſs Deſire, contrary to the known Laws of the Land. At length they proceeded to the enormous Wickedneſs of erazing a judicial Record, in order to ſtop the Courſe of Juſtice, and to fruſtrate all Poſſibility of Relief by an Appeal to thoſe Laws, which are the nobleſt Birthright and Inheritance of all the Subjects of this Realm.

"During the unjuſt Confinement of our Repreſentatives, they proceeded to a Law, depriving the Citizens of London of a conſiderable Part of their Property in the Soil of the River Thames, ſolemnly granted to them by divers Charters, and confirmed by Authority of Parliament; and, under Colour of Equity, inſerted in that Law an unuſual ſaving Clauſe, ſubverſive of the known and eſtabliſhed Laws of Property; they have, without any Pretence of an Abuſe, ſuperſeded the Conſervancy of the River Thames, in the Liberty which the Citizens of London have enjoyed from the Conqueſt.

"We therefore, your Remonſtrants, again humbly ſupplicate your Majeſty to reſtore our Rights, and give Peace to this diſtracted Nation, by a ſpeedy Diſſolution of Parliament, and by removing your preſent wicked and deſpotic Miniſters for ever from your Councils and Preſence.

(Signed by Order) JAMES HODGES."

To which Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition, his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

"I Shall ever be ready to exert my Prerogative, as far as I can conſtitutionally, in redreſſing any real Grievances of my Subjects; and the City of London will always find me diſpoſed to liſten to any of their well-founded Complaints: It is, therefore, with Concern, that I ſee a Part of my Subjects ſtill ſo far miſled and deluded, as to renew, in ſuch reprehenſible Terms, a Requeſt, with which, I have repeatly declared, I cannot comply."

July 11. Several Councils have been held at Paris on the Benefit and Advantage of their Conqueſt of Corſica, which has coſt, in Soldiers and Sailors, 32,000 Men, and 19,070,000 Livres in Money; its coſts ſince the Departure of Paoli, all Accounts balanced, 3,900,000 Livres a Year. The Iſland does not bring in more than 1,800,000 Livres, excluſive of the Woods. It was thought that this Article would have proved very Advantageous, but as it is under the Management of the King's Undertakers for Ship-building, the Timber is brought to the Docks 18 per Cent. dearer than that imported from the North.

They write from Gibraltar, that the Ships of a certain Northern Power have of late practiſed ſome unwarrantable Acts in ſearching Engliſh Merchant Ships in the Mediterranean, under Pretence of having Turkiſh Property on board.

The following Copy of a Letter was received on Tueſday Night at 11 o'Clock, by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, from the Earl of Hertford, Lord Chamberlain.

"My LORD,

As in Conſequence of the Notice given of the Time your Lordſhip purpoſes ſetting out To-morrow, the Livery may be induced to attend your Lordſhip to St. James's, I have the King's Command to acquaint you, that it being unprecedented to admit the Livery upon ſuch Occaſions, as well as impracticable, to introduce ſo numerous a Body, no Perſons beyond the Number allowed by Law to preſent Petitions to the Throne, will be admitted, except your Lordſhip, the Aldermen, Common-Council, and City Officers. I am,

My Lord, with the greateſt Reſpect,

Your Lordſhip's moſt obedient humble Servant,

Groſvenor-Street, HERTFORD."

July 9, 1771.

Yeſterday Morning the Lord Mayor cauſed Copies of the above Letter to be ſtuck up in divers Parts of the City, that the Livery might be acquainted with the ſame.

While the King, in one Reſpect, adheres ſo religiouſly to an abſolute Law, why does he ſuffer it to be violated with Regard to the Aldermen? Are not the Livery as much his Subjects as the Aldermen? A Prince ſhould never ſeem afraid of his People.

Yeſterday the Court appeared every Way brilliant and numerous, and his Majeſty was ſurrounded with a great many of the Nobility, foreign Ambaſſadors, and Officers of State.

The Name of the Iſlands in the Archipelago, which have been conquered and ſubjected, with all the Inhabitants thereon, to her Imperial Majeſty of all the Ruſſias: Satorin, Naharia, Policandro, Milo, Argentero, Bieles, Scanim, Nio, Stajalia, Morgo, Serfantó, Serfano, Tirmiyé, Zea, Sira, Autijaris, Paros, with the Port Auſa, Nixia, Delos, Andro, Tino, Micol, and between the Iſlands Schio and Schiro, the Iſland Peſer or Spſar.

The Kings of Denmark and Sweden, by their Readineſs to hear the Petitions of their Subjects, have ſet a glorious Example to the Reſt of the Sovereigns of Europe.

July 13. We are aſſured that the King, and not the Lord Chamberlain, read the Anſwer to the Remonſtrance on Wedneſday.

Mr. Wilkes being aſked to accompany the Lord Mayor on Wedneſday, replied, "I certainly will not; and I wonder, Sir, you can deſire me to do ſuch a Thing, who know, that it has ever been the Rule and Study of my Life to give his Majeſty no Offence.

A Nobleman on Wedneſday aſked an Alderman at Court, what was the Intention of the Citizens by their preſent Viſit? To open the King's Eye, and let him ſee who are his Enemies, anſwers the Alderman. I wonder, then, replies the Lord, that you left Mr. Wilkes behind you; for had he been here, you would have ſucceeded completely, and his Majeſty would have ſeen them all.

Extract of a Letter from Baſtia, July 13.

"The Malecontents of this Iſland are in great Affliction ſince they have been informed, that a Frigate and a Chebec are immediately expected from Toulon, to embark all the Natives who are in our Prisons, and transport them to America."

CHARLES-TOWN, (S. Carolina,) August 26.

On the 11th Instant a large Ship was seen on Fire a few Leagues off Cape Florida, thought to be from Jamaica, with Rum, &c. and continued burning till next Morning, when the Master of the Vessel, who brings us the Intelligence, conjectures she must have gone down, as he could see no more of her. Several other Ships were in Company with, or in Sight of her.

ANNAPOLIS, September 26.

On Saturday last, his Excellency's Brother, Captain Thomas Eden, set out for England by Way of Philadelphia and New York; to which last mentioned City he was to accompany the Hon. Mrs. Eden and Miss Darby.

On Sunday Richard Bennet Lloyd, Esq; also set out for New-York, to go from thence in the October Packet to England.

His Excellency the Earl of Dunmore, Governor of Virginia, is said to have gone down the Eastern Shore last Week in his Way to that Province.

A Snow belonging to Baltimore, is seized below Smith's-Point by the Boston's Tender.

On Monday last the Hon. Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, and the Hon. Col. Plater, were sworn in Members of his Lordship's Council of State.

On the 23d of July died in Bermudas, for which Island he had embarked on the 13th of June, in order to make Trial of a Change of Air, John Morton Jordan, Esq; some Time Agent for the Lord Proprietary of this Province.

The flying Gout, which during Six Years had, at different Times, fallen with the most excruciating Violence on every other Part of his Frame, at length seized his Bowels, and put a Period to his painful Existence.

In a Situation which would have overwhelmed most Men, even the firmest, with Melancholy and Despair, his Mind maintained itself erect and unbroken even to a Degree of Vivacity, not to be credited but by those to whom a stricter Intimacy afforded more frequent Opportunities of contemplating and admiring his Fortitude.

He was a Man of rigid Honour, indulgent and noble in the Discharge of his domestic Offices, of a strong natural Capacity, of enlarged Notions in and thorough Acquaintance with Business. In his Friendships he was cordial and disinterested. In his Enmities it must be confessed that he was warm, but he was likewise masculine, frank and generous. Had not the unceasing Assaults of a merciless Disease triumphed over the Delicacy of his Constitution, it is highly probable that this City the Place of his Residence in particular, and the whole Province in general, would have derived very many important and permanent Benefits from the Activity of that enterprizing Temper, the Sallies of which, even when he was on the Brink of the Grave, often filled his Friends with Astonishment.

He left behind him a Wife and Son, to mingle their Tears with those of his Relations and sincere Friends. His Fortune is on good Grounds reputed to be very considerable.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint and commissionate Daniel of St. Thomas Jenifer, Esq; to be Agent and Receiver General in this Province, in the Room of John Morton Jordan, Esq; deceased.

On Tuesday the Jockey Club Purse of 100 Guineas was run for over the Course near this City.

September 17, 1771.

Pursuant to the Last Will and Testament of Robert Gilcresh, late of Baltimore County, deceased, will be sold at PUBLICK VENDUE, on Thursday the 31st Day of next October, at Mr. Ambrose Geoghegan's Tavern,

EIGHT Hundred Acres of Land, Part of a Tract of Land, called Upper-Marlborough, situate and lying in Baltimore County, lying on the great Road leading from Frederick-Town to Baltimore-Town, and at the Distance of about 25 Miles from Baltimore-Town. This Land would answer well for making Tobacco or Farming. There are Two small Tenements on it; fine Meadow Ground may be made; has a very extensive Range, and the Title is indisputable. The Land may be laid out in Parcels, or otherwise, as may best suit the Purchasers; and Time may be had for Payment of the Money, on giving Bond with good Security. Any Persons that have a Mind to view the Land before the Time of Sale, may apply to Mr. Ambrose Geoghegan, who lives but a small Distance from the Place, who will conduct them over it. This Land has been advertised some Time past, but the Sale put off from Time to Time, but will certainly be sold at the Time now appointed.

The great and learned Doctor SANXAY's IMPERIAL GOLDEN DROPS.

AFTER a very long Courſe of private Practice with the tender and moſt delicate Conſtitutions, the Firſt Nobility and Gentry in Great-Britain, Ireland, and many Perſons eminent for Fortune and Character in America, and in the Weſt-Indies, the Doctor has proved beyond all Doubt his Imperial Golden Drops, to be the greateſt Cordial to Nature, Medicine ever produced. Theſe Drops are compoſed from the fineſt Eſſence of the richeſt Gums and Balſams of the Eaſt and Weſt Parts of the World; therefore, this Medicine is truly the Balſam of all the other known Balſams. It is from the combined Power, Efficacy and Virtue of theſe rich and natural Balſams, that theſe Drops are able to fortify the weak and enfeebled Parts; to give Health, Strength, and Vigour to a worn-out Conſtitution. So friendly is this great Cordial to human Nature, that it is a medical Aliment; nouriſhes the vital Syſtem, and prolongs Life. It is by theſe unequaled Virtues, that the Cauſes of Barrenneſs and Sterility in Women, and Impotency in Men, are to an almoſt Certainty removed. All rheumatic and gravelly Complaints are moſt aſſuredly relieved, and if continued for ſome Time, will radically cure the Diſorders: Beſides, all obſtinate Gleets, ſeminal Weakneſſes, Whites in Women, and every Weakneſs of the Reins and Loins, from whatever Cauſe proceeding, except the venereal Virus; theſe Imperial Golden Drops in a few Days effects a Cure. Thoſe Patients labouring under an improper Treatment of Mercurials from unſkilful Perſons, in a certain Diſorder, and find their Juices impoveriſhed, will ſoon find their Account in the Uſe of theſe admired Drops. They who feel the ſecret Infirmities of advancing Years; or where the Power of Youth begins to decline, will find this Nature's grand Reſtorative their only Friend. It was for ſomething like this grand Secret in Medicine, that the Fathers of Phyſick, the immortal Boerhaave and Sydenham laboured their whole Lives in vain to Diſcover for the good of mankind.

It is to be had in Bottles of THOMAS ANDERTON, Bookſeller, Wholeſale and Retail, at his Store the Lower End of the Jerſey-Market, Philadelphia. To prevent the Buyers from being impoſed upon by any counterfeit Sort, he hath ſealed the Bottle with his Seal and Coat of Arms, and ſigned each Bottle in his own Hand writing.

 Where alſo may be had, Doctor Sanxay's Alexipharmic Pills, and his Specific purging Electuary, which cure the Lues Venerea in all Stages and Circumſtances whatever in a very ſhort Time; without imparting the Secret to a Bedfellow, without giving the leaſt Pain, Sickneſs, Trouble, Confinement, or Reſtraint of Diet to the Patient; who may at all Times of the Year, and in all Climates of the World, at home or abroad, at Sea, or on a Journey, receive perfect and poſitive Health, by the Uſe of theſe Medicines and exactly following the Rules laid down in the Book of Directions given with them.

Advice in all Caſes gratis.

POETS CORNER.

CONSOLATION. An ELEGY.

To Mrs. ———

Carminibus quæro miſerarum oblivia rerum;
Præmia, ſi ſtudio conſequor iſta, ſat eſt.
OVID. TRIST.

AT length 'tis paſt—the dubious Conflict's o'er,
Nor further could thy Pray'rs prolong the Striſe,
Nor the pure Skies of yon ſalubrious Shore
Give longer Reſpite to exhauſted Life;

In vain, ſurmounted ev'ry female Fear,
You brav'd the Horrors of the bilowy Main,
In Hopes ſerener Climes and native Air
The ſlacken'd Nerves of Life might brace again.

Each ſoft Attention, ev'ry anxious Thought,
And each aſſiduous Art to ſoothe his Pain,
And ev'ry balmy Opiate Love had taught,
Affection bade thee try—Alas! in vain!

If, to reflect, e'er ſince he fell a Prey
To ling'ring Sickneſs, and Life's worſt Diſeaſe,
That ev'ry Duty thou haſt done; a Ray
Of Peace on thee may ſhed—be thine that Peace.

Cou'd ſun'ral Pomp, to ſuch as truly grieve,
Or Weeds of Sable, melancholy Show!
Cou'd Friends, attending at his Bier, relieve
Thy Heart-felt Pangs of agonizing Woe?

Yet, there is due a tributary Grief,
A Grief ev'n rigid Stoics wou'd allow;
A few ſad Tears, Mortality's Relief,
Which Mem'ry claims thy Sorrows will beſtow.

Was he not all Indulgence to thy Love,
Burnt not his Boſom with the trueſt Fire,
Did he e'er wayward to thy Wiſhes prove,
Or heſitate to grant thy each Deſire?

To make thee happy, his unceaſing Aim,
Its ſure Reward ſhall bring in Realms above;
There you will meet, together there will claim
Ætherial Crowns of everlaſting Love.

Say, tender as thou art, couldſt thou deſire,
From yon Elyſian Bow'rs, yon bliſs-full Plains,
Full-fraught with Joys, that he ſhou'd thence retire,
Again to dwell 'midſt Heart-corroding Pains?

Think that he waits the Day, impatient, there
Which to his Arms DORINDA ſhall reſtore,
Thence he obſerves, well-pleas'd, that falling Tear,
Nor ſcorns thy Bard's conſolatory Lore.

—If yet, in ſilent Sorrow's ſearching Eye,
No pitying Friend at Hand to cloſe his Sight,
Thy Fancy ſees his Clay-cold Body lie,
And all Life's Splendors ſunk in endleſs Night;

And if, too weak to ſoothe thy throbbing Heart,
Theſe artleſs Lines no Conſolation bring,
My Muſe ſhall in thy Griefs again take Part,
And, if thou bidſt, again ſhall plaintive ſing.
